Art. 4 - Aim of the Competition

The Competition aims to encourage university students to improve their knowledge of international criminal law in practice and in particular of the ICC, its mandate and its jurisprudence, by simulating ICC proceedings through arguing a hypothetical case. The Competition seeks to enhance knowledge about the Rome Statute, especially within countries that have yet to ratify it. In addition, the Competition provides participants with the opportunity to become familiar with The Hague based international institutions.

Art. 5 - Participation

- a. I) ≤60 registrations (after the Preliminary Question Round): Each country and the Special Administrative Regions of Hong Kong and Macau, may be represented by a maximum of two (2) teams. II) >60 registrations (after the Preliminary Question Round): Each country and the Special Administrative Regions of Hong Kong and Macau, may be represented by a maximum of two (2) teams in the Main Round in The Hague, the Netherlands.
- b. Only actively enrolled students in undergraduate and postgraduate universities are eligible to participate. Exchange students may participate on behalf of their host university.
- c. Non-law students may be considered eligible, provided that they have the requisite legal knowledge. It is each team’s responsibility to ensure that its team members have a level of legal knowledge suitable for the Competition.
- d. Students admitted to practice, including by having taken and passed the bar exam, are prohibited to participate.
- e. A student can participate in the Competition as a speaker only once. A student who has previously participated in the Competition as a speaker is not eligible to re-enter the Competition as a speaker, but is eligible to re-enter the Competition as a researcher and vice versa.

Art. 6 - Team Composition
